Guest Speaker - Daniel Flynn Co Founder of Thankyou Water

At just 19 years of age, Daniel Flynn abandoned his five-year plan in order to start up a social enterprise called Thankyou Water. It started with the launch of a bottled water that would exist with the sole purpose of funding safe water projects in developing nations. That idea has now grown to over 55 products, in over 5,500 outlets in Australia, raised millions of dollars and helps hundreds of thousands of people in need.

Leaders Emerge - They Don't Just Appear

Identifying the stages of Leadership Emergence By Rod Denton

Where have all the leaders gone?

Could there be any more desperate cry than this in our world today?

We have facilitators, administrators, managers, academics, coordinators and people with various titles and qualifications, but very few leaders. So we are left to recruit staff from elsewhere, or raise up volunteers who are given leadership positions and a roster of helpers, or we overload the few leaders that are around. These options often result in a gradual decline or at best a plateauing in our churches and the few leaders that remain, ultimately burn out.

We send those in leadership positions to quick fix courses that end up achieving little because courses don't develop leaders. And so those in leadership positions end up being overtrained and underdeveloped.

Often, it is only when a situation reaches a crisis point that desperate measures are taken, if it is not already too late. It took the intervention of Moses' father in law, Jethro, to realise the desperate need for leaders that existed when he questioned Moses,

"What is this you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit as judge, while all these people stand around you from morning to evening?....."

What you are doing is not good. You and these people who come to you will only wear yourselves out. The work is too heavy for you; you cannot handle it alone."

(Exodus 18: 14,17-18)
